Accommodation – Limited availability

Book early to ensure that you secure good quality and affordable accommodation in Krakow. The visit of Pope Francis to the city shortly after the Congress will put an unprecedented demand on the supply of hotel accommodation in the city during this time. The ECB2016 organisers have negotiated preferential rates with local hotels during this period, but these are only guaranteed whilst there is availability. We would recommend that you book no later than Monday 14 March 2016 to ensure that you are not disappointed.
